

PRESS RELEASE
20th July 2016

RunCzech to open registrations for next season's spring races

Already have plans for next year? Too soon to think about? It's not, at least not for the runners who want to try out a race in the Czech Republic! In just five days RunCzech will be launching registrations for its spring races next year. Starting on July 20th you will have the chance to sign up for the marathon and half marathon in Prague, plus half marathons in Karlovy Vary, České Budějovice and Olomouc. We will be offering highly favourable early bird rates, so do not miss out!

Last year the capacity for the Sportisimo Prague Half Marathon and Volkswagen Prague Marathon were reached in just 69 days. The organizers are anticipating the same this year, including a significant portion of runners traveling abroad. "Runners from a total of 93 countries took part in this year's Volkswagen Prague Marathon. We are delighted to see more and more foreign guests and hope to see the trend continue. After all, Prague and the Czech Republic really have something to offer runners," President of RunCzech, Carlo Capalbo reveals.

Aside from the two Prague races, you can also sign up for three Mattoni half marathons also during the spring season –located in Karlovy Vary, České Budějovice and Olomouc. Registrations for the Prague relay and autumn races – the Grand Prix and Ústí nad Labem half marathon – will open at the end of September. So, what are the dates for the 2017 RunCzech Running League?
