

PRESS RELEASE
1st May 2018

Volkswagen Prague Marathon Highlights

On Sunday 6th May, the Czech Republic's most famous running race gets underway for the twenty-fourth time. Over the years the Volkswagen Prague Marathon has become an integral part of the world running scene. An exceptionally beautiful course, elite athletes from all over the world, thousands of enthusiastic runners and an experience to last a lifetime – the Prague marathon offers all of this. Whether you're taking part as a runner, volunteer, fan or watching the live broadcast on Česká televize, this is an athletics celebration to thoroughly enjoy!

Key information:

- This year will mark the 24th event year.
- The Volkswagen Prague Marathon will be broadcast live on ČT Sport. The broadcast starts at 8.50 on Sunday 6th May. The online live broadcast will be streamed on www.runczech.com.
- The Volkswagen Prague Marathon is the second RunCzech event series comprising a total of eight races in five cities around the Czech Republic. A record 82 883 runners took part in all RunCzech events last year.
- The race is awarded the IAAF Gold Label for the eight year in a row.
- This year's Volkswagen Prague Marathon will welcome the millionth runner in RunCzech race history since 1995.
- International Association of Athletics Federations \(IAAF\) president Sebastian Coe will be attending the race.
- The race kicks off at 9.00 from Old Town Square. The last runner will arrive at the same place seven hours later, i.e. at 16.00 and will be welcomed by the entire RunCzech team.
- Prague City Mayor Adriana Krnáčová and IAAF President Sebastian Coe will assume start gun duties.
- The race rose to fame thanks to the beautiful course which penetrates the heart of historical Prague, leading runners along the Vltava and over six Prague bridges including the renowned Charles Bridge. Competing runners will start from Old Town Square, run around the National Theatre, the Dancing House, the Municipal House and other sights.
- 10 600 marathon runners will compete in the main race. Anyone not quite ready to take on the entire marathon distance can sign up to the 2Run where two people take on a half marathon stretch each.
- Prague marathon runners can now also use the brand new RunCzech mobile app. It features a guide to the entire race, your start number, offers from our partners, live monitoring of runners and loads more. The app is available on both Android and iOS devices.
- Runner pre-registration is one of the most widely anticipated new features. In practice this means that if runner can't take part in a race, they can transfer their start numbers to someone else.
- Thanks to Eluid Kiptanui's record time of 2:05:39 back in 2010, the Volkswagen Prague Marathon ranks as the fastest May-held marathon of all time. As of last year, the women's race record of 2:21:57 has been held by Valary Aiyabei.
- African long-distance runners headed on this occasion by Sisay Lemma are the hot favourites to win.

ALL RUNNERS ARE BEAUTIFUL

RUNCZECH

The Ethiopian runner is expected to launch an assault on the race record, though he will face fierce competition from compatriot Bazu Worku and Kenya's Stephan Chemlany while excellent half marathon runners Asefa Tefera, Belay Tilahun and Felix Kibitok, who will be running their first ever marathon in Prague, may also deliver some surprising performances.

- The US's best marathon runner Galen Rupp will also be returning to Prague one year on.
- Records will be on the agenda for the women too. Ethiopian star Amane Gobena will likely take care of that, though we can also expect to see an excellent performance from Portugal's Sara Moreira.
- Czech fans can look forward to checking out the Czech national marathon championships which traditionally takes place as part of the Volkswagen Prague Marathon. Those competing include defender of last year's victory title and five-times national champion Petr Pechek, Jiří Homoláč and Vít Pavlišta.
- In Eva Vrabcová-Nýlvtová's absence, the trio fighting for a spot on the women's podium are Petra Pastorová – triple Czech national champion in the marathon, Olympian Ivana Sekyrová and the talented Tereza Ďurdiaková.
- Aside from smashing records, runners will also be aiming to qualify for the European Championships in August.
- In addition to the elite athletes, a number of well-known personalities will be taking part in the race. Guitarist from the band Chinaski František Táborský will be taking part in the 2Run with Light for the World Director Richard Schinko. Rower and silver-medal winning quadruple scull member from the Athens Olympics, David Kopřiva will be braving the entire course as will the surgeon Tomáš Šebek, actress Lenka Vacvalová, journalists Tomáš Poláček and Petr Honzejek, the virtuoso pianist Michal Rezek and the Karlovy Vary mayor Petr Kulhánek. Blind runner Ondřej Zmeškal will also be taking part and guided by the barefoot runner Tomáš Zahálka.
- The Volkswagen Prague Marathon was the world's first marathon to exist in digital version. This year's Prague Digital Marathon will kick off at 9.00 on Sunday 6th May.
- The Volkswagen Prague Marathon not only delivers an interesting sporting spectacle to those watching on the sidelines but also boasts a rich accompanying programme. The Sport Expo Prague will be held all day on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Also featuring on the accompanying programme will be a book signing with Gabriela Koukalová, a meeting between elite athletes and runners, not to mention the traditional Barilla Pasta Party.
- The non-competitive dm Family Mini-marathon will take up its usual spot in Stromovka on Saturday as part of the dm Family Day. The 5 400 dm Family Mini-marathon participants can choose between completing a three or five-kilometre course starting and finishing in Výstaviště, not forgetting of course the Walk with Dogs plus the competitive canicross category which expects to welcome five hundred participants.
- IAAF President Sebastian Coe will launch the dm family fun with Patricie Solaříková in charge of the same for the Walk with Dogs.
- 34 bands will be taking part in the Marathon Music Festival on race day.
- 300 high-school students will take part in the race as part of the Junior Marathon Final. The 30 ten-member teams came together from 13 semi-final rounds held all over the Czech Republic which saw a record 2 630 students take part this year.
