

Media Rules

- All necessary information can also be found on the RunCzech website at runczech.com.
- Journalists are required to wear their event accreditation, obtained at the press center, and a media vest at all times.
- Journalists, photographers, and videomakers may only move within the areas specified by their accreditation obtained at the press center.
- If you hold an accreditation that includes authorization for Zone 5 (course), it is valid only in the start and finish area and does not apply to the entire race course.
- Journalists, photographers, and videomakers must not in any way obstruct or interfere with runners or with vehicles or scooters accompanying elite runners.
- On our course We have strict prohibition on using any means of transport.
  - (electric scooters, bicycles, unicycles and others)
- A designated media area will be marked in the start/finish zone. Photographers, videomakers, and journalists must not enter the start or finish area in any way during the race start or the finish of elite runners, except within the designated media area. RunCzech staff and Czech Television always have priority.
- In the start and finish area, journalists, photographers, and video creators (including influencers) must not remain in a manner or to an extent that would obstruct runners from passing smoothly or prevent RunCzech staff from properly carrying out their duties. This rule also applies to the entire race course.
- The vest must always be returned to the press center after the race, in accordance with its opening hours.
- Failure to comply with the rules set by the organizer may result in the withdrawal of accreditation during the race.
- If you are using the press center Wi-Fi, it is strictly prohibited to upload photos, videos, or other files with a total size exceeding 1 GB.
- Accreditation through the media accreditation form for the races can be submitted until the deadline stated on the website under Information for media. After this deadline, applications will no longer be accepted.
- Press center and accreditation pickup – the opening hours and location of the press center can be found on the Information for media page.
